O. H. S. ROUSER

For the Onancock High School has come true,
To teach you what to know and what to do,
For it is ever as the days of yore,
The best school on the Eastern Shore -
The Eastern Shore.

All honor glory to the O. H. S.
There's nothing coming to you but success,
For the Onancock High School got the pep,
Yes you bet! O. H. S.

VICTORY SONG

Cheer, cheer for O. H. S.
Wake up the echoes cheering your best,
Send a volley cheer on high
Shake down the thunder from the sky.
What though the odds be great or small
O. H. S. will win over all,
While our loyal sons are marching
Onward to victory!

ONANCOCK GOIN' SHINE

Onancock Goin' shine tonight,
Onancock goin' shine;
Onancock goin' shine tonight all down the line,
Onancock goin' shine tonight,
Onancock goin' shine;
When the sun goes down, and the moon comes up,
Onancock goin' shine!

Dedication

We, the class of 1959, hereby dedicate this edition of "The Beacon" to Mrs. Mary K. Wood who, despite her many obligations and responsibilities, has found time to guide us through our years at Onancock. Her unceasing patience and sincere helpfulness have contributed greatly toward the happiness and success of these four years.

SENIOR HISTORY 1958-1959

September 4, 1948 was a beautiful day, like many others in the fall to most people, but a red-letter day to the class of 1959. A beginning is always exciting and on September 4, the 1959 Seniors began their final year.

Name cards are simple things in themselves, but ordering them late in September had a special meaning. For the first time we realized we were on the last lap of our high school race and a feeling of sadness intermingled with our joy.

October was an in-between month! Football practice was in full swing and the girls had started basketball talk, but all, more or less, had settled down to the usual routine.

November brought our Senior play, "MUMBO JUMBO" shown on the 21st, with its mystery, comedy, and applause.

December saw diligent basketball practice, but lessons suffered due to the Christmas spirit.

In January studying was hardest as a prerequisite to exams. Career-minded Seniors could be found seeking guidance from all available sources.

February broke the monotony with the crowning of Martin Willett and Nancy Long as King and Queen of the Athletic Ball on February 13th.

March opened with a mad scurry of preparations for the Senior Fashion Show sponsored by Glick and Sons to be held on March 6th. This was really Suzanne's baby and what a success she made of it.

April, the month of showers, showered the Seniors with final averages, college acceptances, and graduation plans.

May in its lighter vein, spelled Prom! On May 1st the Juniors sponsored one for the 1959 Seniors which will always live in their memories. This last month of school revealed a very happy, but sad, mature, but immature, group of twenty-nine.

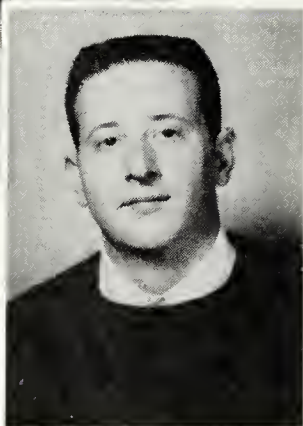

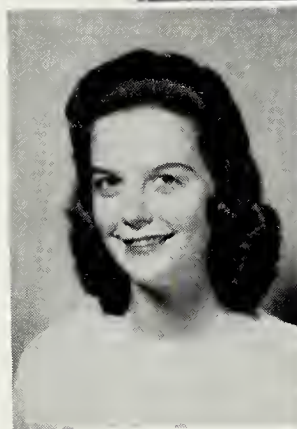

June brought graduation for the 1959 Seniors with all of its excitement, its rewards, and its feelings of a job well done. Alas it brought good bye to our schoolmates and our teachers and a full realization of how we were to miss them.

The Senior history of the Class of 1959 is concrete. What the future holds still is abstract, but we can dream, and many of our dreams will come true.

Class Poem

Twelve short years have come and past,
And now we realize this is the last;
When we stop and think, tears will fall,
Because each of us has a different call.

Some will marry right after school,
While others will follow the military rule;
For others, college is another big first,
And for some professions, such as a nurse.

I'm going to write about our class of '59."
Could you ever hope to see a class so fine?
We've had our arguments and disagreements too,
But next year we'll laugh, like most classes do.

Mrs. Wood has been most kind to us,
In her we could always put our trust;
She's been with us through our four years,
And to all of us she is most sincere.

Mutt, sport's hero and football king,
Adds every week a new girl to his string.

The girl who is known as the quiet type
Is liked by all, yes, it's Betty White.

Nancy, the beauty of our class,
Has a personality none can surpass.

Bobby Kellam is so sleepy in the morning,
Don't be surprised if you see him snoring.

Jill likes to take time to dream,
Wedding Bells will be her next theme.

The practical joker is Charles Drummond,
Look out for pins when you see him coming!

Jane Harris, our class vocabulary genius,
Is known for her wit and also her meanness.

A nurse is what Elizabeth wants to be,
She'll top her goal, just wait and see.

Leonard Watkinson, who burns up the track,
Is certainly a Romeo, that's a fact!

Peggy Taylor, a talkative girl,
Will have Longwood in a swirl.

Our basketball captain is Doug. Scott,
He's known by all and liked alot.

Sandy Dunton is the brain of our class,
I've never seen a test she couldn't pass.

Grey Metzler is another Romeo,
An expert on the court, that we all know.

To write poems and dream is Kay,
They express what she wants to say.

Our quiet boy is Eugene Wheatley,
He never fails to do things neatly.

Now Ted Evans is the just the opposite,
He talks faster than I can knit.

Shirley will be in training next year,
And small children she'll be near.

Barbara, a girl most sincere,
Will be a secretary in maybe a year.

Bill Evans studies the least, I guess,
It's not his will to study for a test.

Esther is one of the nicest girls
You'd ever expect to find in the world.

Bill Paynes likes to dance,
But beware girls of his wicked glance.

Bonnie, editor of our annual staff,
Gets the work done on our behalf.

Ted Shreeves works in his spare time,
Wouldn't it be nice if some saved a dime!

Taking an active part is Suzanne,
If she can't do it, nobody can!

Bobby Young, although he's tall,
Is always ready whenever we call.

The last of our class is me, no less,
So I'll close but maybe it's for the best.

"The Trial of Time"

SCV - RADIO

Ladies and gentlemen this is your courtroom reporter in the press box of the Court of Justice bringing you the trial of the year. This trial which you are about to hear will make history, for it is the first time a trial has been conducted in this manner -- the lawyer for the defendants and the District Attorney have agreed to one and the same question.

The jury has entered and the clerk is about to speak; the trial is beginning:

"Arise, the honorable Judge Truth."

The Judge takes his seat and raises his gavel.

"Court come to order. The Court of Justice is now in session this the fifth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, to hear the case of twenty-nine ex-Seniors of Onancock High School, in an effort to obtain a verdict from their past four years of school to determine their future. After consultation with both the lawyer and the D. A. I have agreed to their method of examination of the witnesses. Call the first witness."

Clerk: "The Court calls Mr. Freshman Year to the stand."

"Do you swear to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help you God?"

"I do."

D.A.: "Tell the Court about the year 1956-57."

"Well, your Honor, my year began with forty-one bright-eyed, bewildered green horns seeking the teaching that would lay a firm foundation for the future. Under the direction of their homeroom teacher, Mrs. Mary Wood, officers were elected: President, Bill Evans; Vice-President, Robert Yow; Secretary, Adelaide Wray; and Treasurer, Peggy Taylor. At the close of the year, they had mastered the new subjects presented them and did not feel as "green." That was the first witness and what a testimony! The judge has asked for the second witness, Mr. Sophomore Year. I can see by his mannerisms he is a "wise fool."

"Your Honor, this year the foolish bunch of students possess a little more confidence and know their way around. Mrs. Wood is again their homeroom teacher and the following officers were elected: President, Nancy Barlow; Vice-President, Pat Lang; Secretary, Sandy Dunton; and Treasurer, Douglas Scott. They were sorry to lose many of their former students. With the Prom in their prospective plans for the coming year, money-making projects were exercised. This year climaxed rather quietly for these wise fools found themselves not so wise after all."

Judge: "Thank-you; you may step down."

The third witness, a jolly type, is approaching the stand.

"Ha, Ha! This was to be a big year with the prom, play and class rings to be experienced. Mrs. Wood lost without this jolly group, accepts being their homeroom teacher. The class officers were elected and were: President, Pat Lang; Vice-President, Grey Matzler; Secretary, Adelaide Wray; and Treasurer, Vonnie Jones. They were very unhappy when they lost Betty Kellam, Imogene Parks and Albert East. Time quickly passed, class rings were displayed and admired; recognition for the grand performance of their first play, "The Magic Touch," was obtained; a fashion show held; and with the arrival of spring -- the Prom. "Oriental Gardens" was the theme of this beautiful occasion and left in the memory of all that it had been the best. Thus, another year was complete."

The clerk is calling Mr. Senior Year, the final witness -- dignified and distinguished.

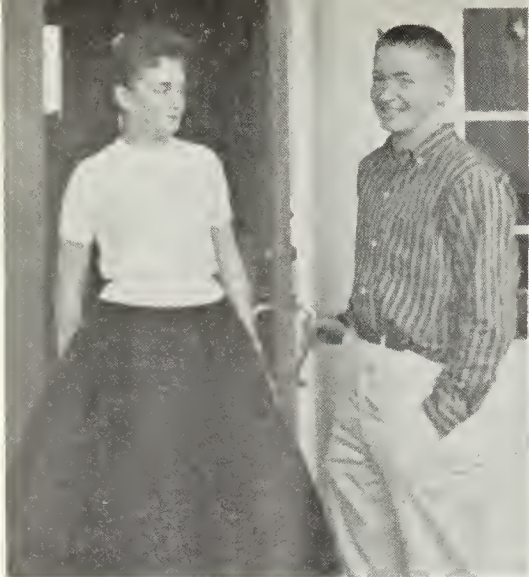

"Your Honor, September, 1958, found them pro and sophisticated Seniors. Departing from them this year was Robert Vow and Lydia Belote, however, Charles Drummond was welcomed. Mrs. Wood, for the last time, played the role of their homeroom teacher. Officers for the final time were elected: President, Pat Lang; Vice-President, Ted Evans; Secretary, Adelaide Wray; and Treasurer, Vonnie Jones. Realizing all the work that had to be completed before the presentation of the Diploma, this distinguished group began to work hard and earnestly. Before Christmas they presented a gay mystery titled "Mumbo-Jumbo." With name cards, thank you notes, and invitations ordered, the Ball over, the calendar revealed Prom time. To the Juniors they express sincere thanks for an evening that left wonderful memories. In the minds of many the future existed and applications were secured to higher institutions of learning. Caps and gowns were ordered and the dream of graduation was near. Too soon this dream was fulfilled and with Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Graduation present, the Seniors found that their days of high school life were at a close. The laughter and tears experienced these closing hours added to their golden memories of O. H. S."

Returning from the jury room, we find that the jury has been unable to reach a decision. We hear the Judge speak:

"The Court leaves this verdict to be brought by the future years. Time will prove true and just concerning the lives of these students. May life be profitable and may the final verdict be acceptable before the people of this country. Court dismisses!"

Until another Senior Class is tried in an attempt to seek their future farewell.

SPECIAL NEWS REPORT

June 1, 1969

Today in Onancock High School the class of 1959 held their class reunion. The school was gleaming with smiling faces as old friends met and relived their experiences at their dear old alma mata. Although old classmates had traveled wide and varied paths, each one enjoyed reminiscing and declared eternal friendships.

Vonnie Jones, whose whims and worries brought in wealth for the class of '59, is now chief guard of the police force at Fort Knox.

Douglas Scott, whose driving drove cops delirious, recently won top honors at the Indianapolis Speedway.

Peggy Taylor, whose mouth moved miraculously rapid, has just finished her eighth year on the T.V. program "Keep Talking."

Elizabeth Lewis and Shirley Scott, always striving students, recently in a double ceremony married the top surgeons at Norfolk General Hospital.

Bobby Kellam, who always enjoyed school so much, is now enrolled in night school in order to complete his project -- a motor that runs on water.

Suzanne VanKesteren, whose interest centered around horses, recently bought Churchill Downs.

Nancy Barlow Long, the beauty queen of our class, was just named Mrs. America of 1969.

Grey Metzler, whose ambition was to attend West Point, is flashing four bright stars on his uniform. Wonder when the fifth will be added?

Esther Smith, who was a beauty in high school, is now a model in Paris, modeling the creations of none other than Nancy Crockett, her classmate.

Adelaide Wray, the musical enthusiast in our class has won world acclaim at Carnegie Hall.

Mutt Willett, our football king, is now head coach of the Washington Redskins.

Bonnie Smith has finally become a millionaire. How? Married a man named Rockefeller.

Leonard Watkinson, one of our outstanding track stars, recently broke the world's record by running the mile in one minute flat.

Jane Harris, always an ardent reader, is now chief librarian at the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C.

Bobby Young, who enjoyed public speaking so much, is now campaigning for U. S. Senator.

Kay Brown, always a quiet girl, is now art editor for the New York Times.

Sandy Dunton, the most studious girl in our class, is now principal of Rayen High School in Ohio.

Ted Shreeves, who was always interested in science has developed a rocket to carry men to Mars. The first person to sign up was none other than Bill Payne.

Jill Edwards need not worry about speeding. She has finally hooked her trooper.

Bill and Ted Evans, the fun loving boys in our class, recently opened their own nightclub, "The Brewster" in New York City.

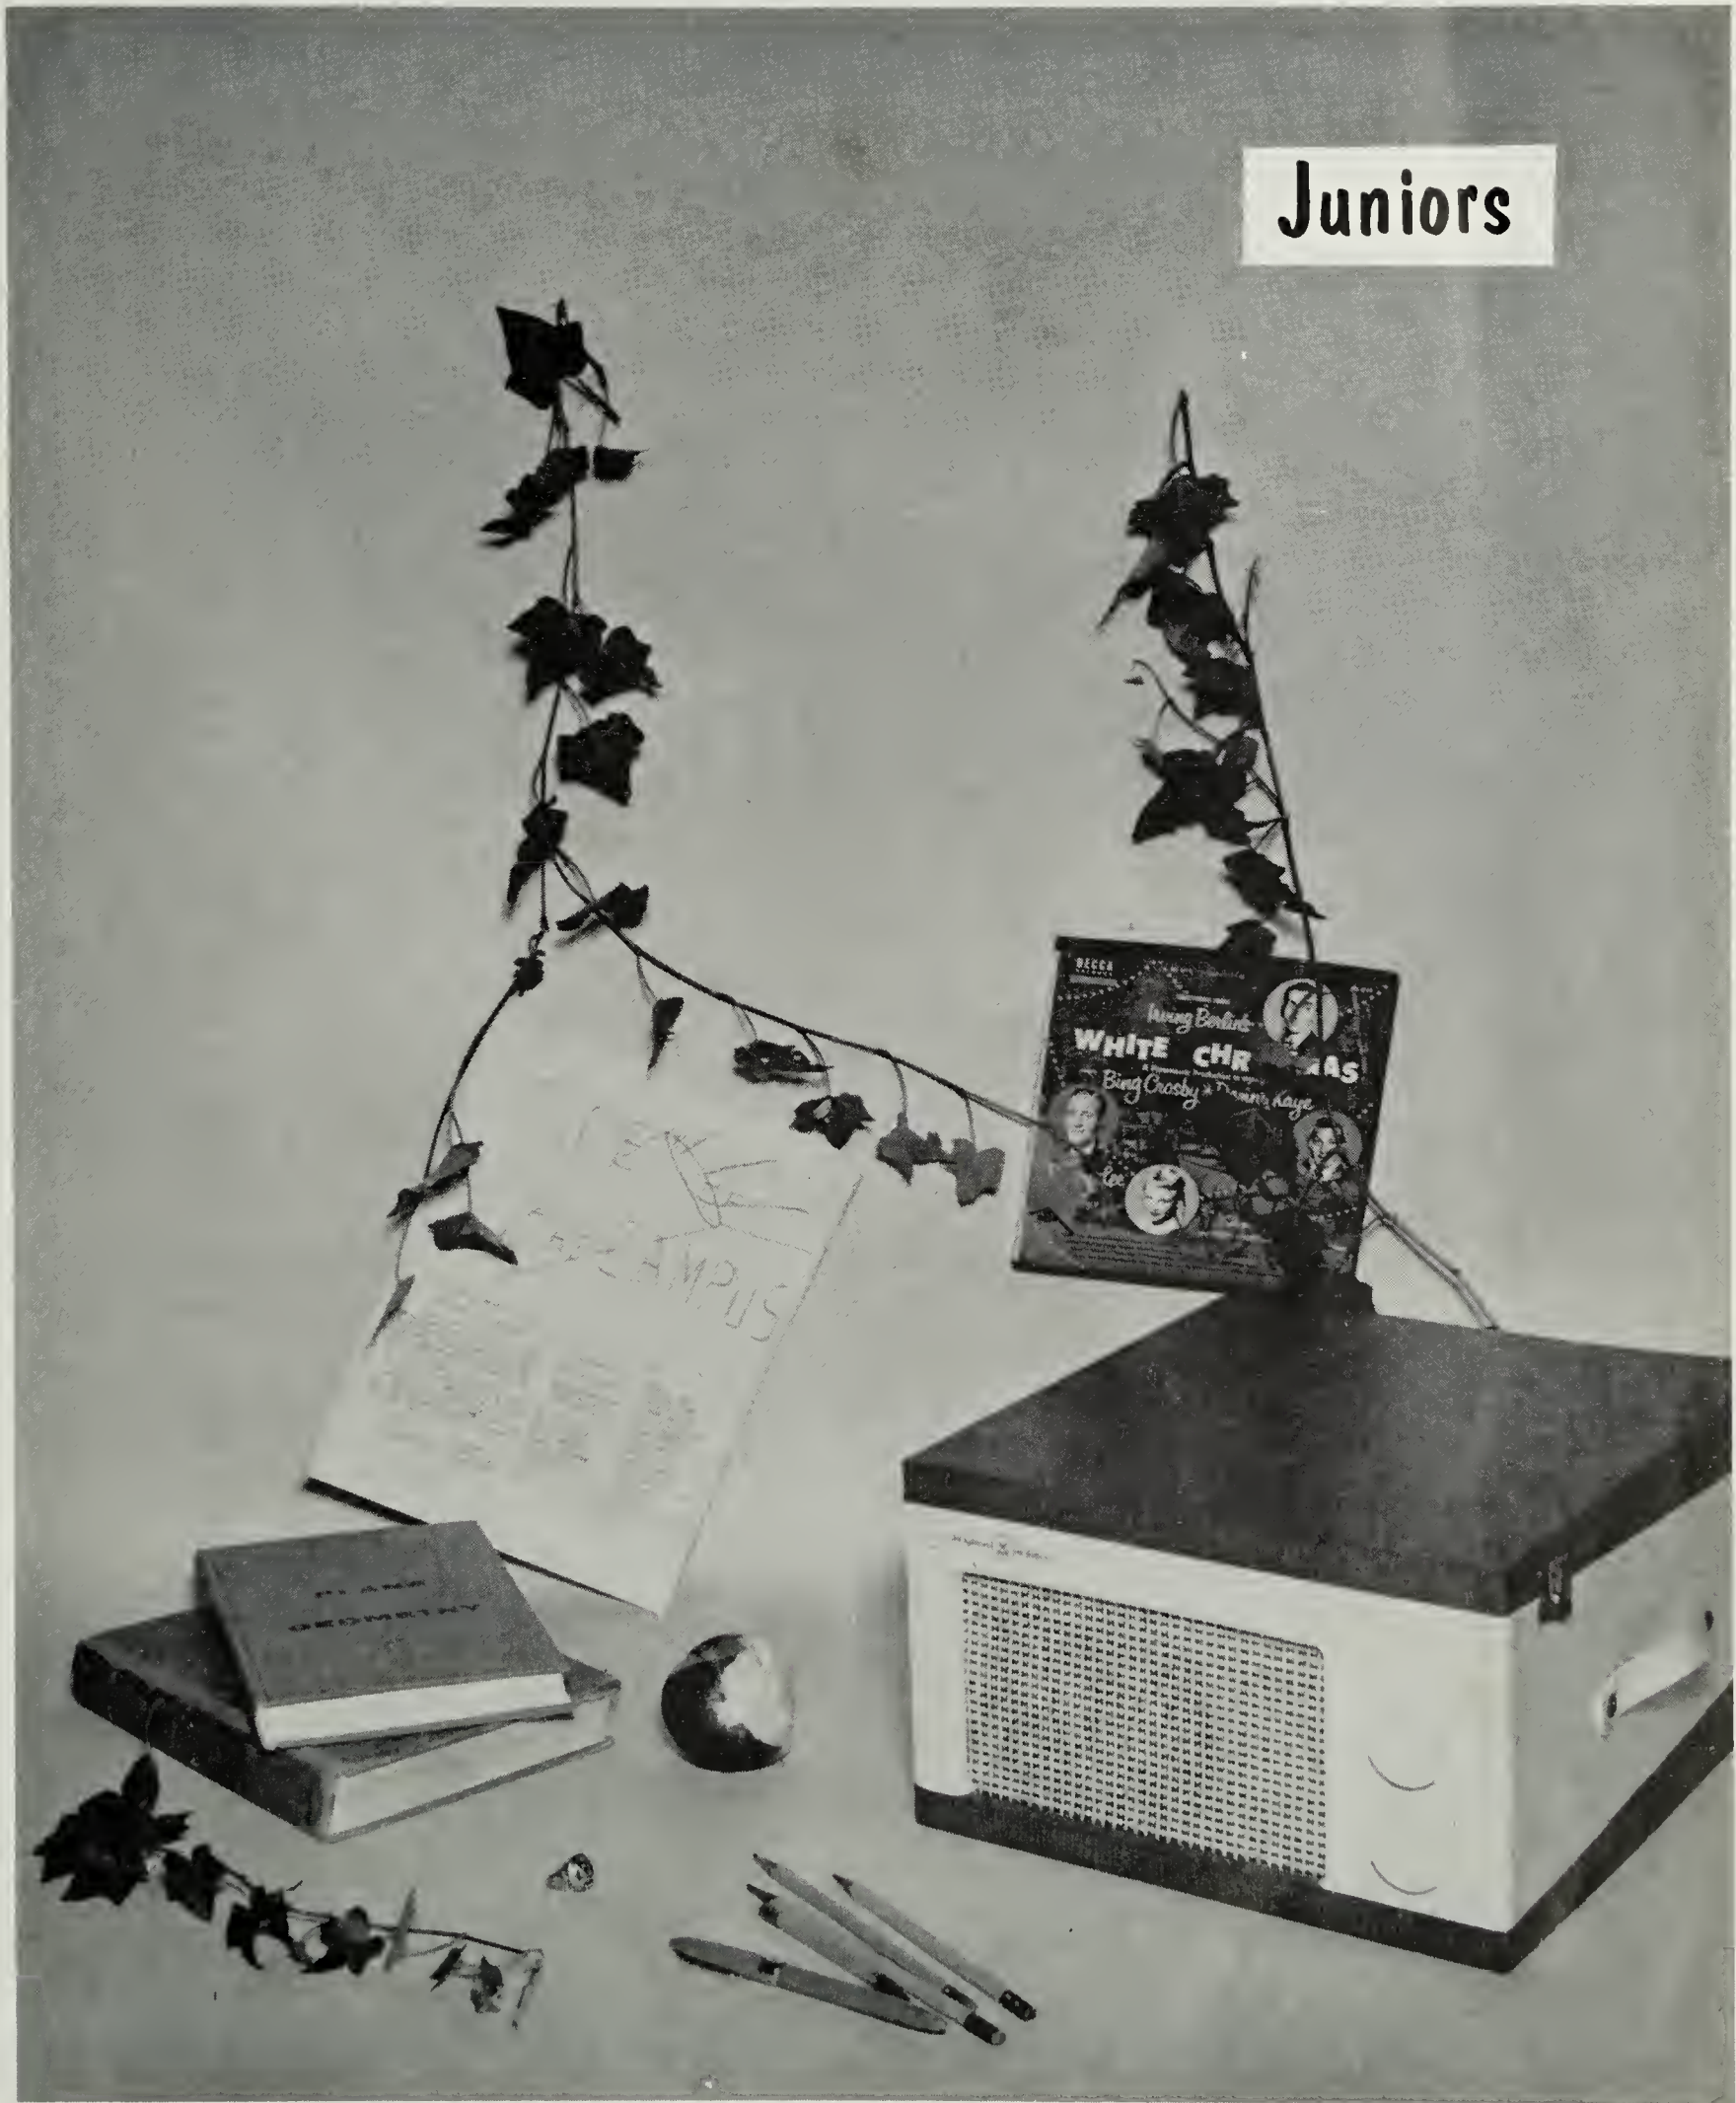

Eugene Wheatley, who was always striving to do better is President of his own business firm with Barbara Rogers and Betty White as his private secretaries.

Charles Drummond, always a jolly joker, just sold the first million copies of his book, "LAUGH and Be HAPPY!"

Now our reunion has drawn to a close and as I sit at my desk in my lonely old maid's dwelling, I wonder if old classmates will again meet and share their fond memories.

JUNIOR HISTORY 1958-1959

Our Junior year, under the guidance of our home room teacher Mrs. Yvonne Richardson, was a very busy and successful year. The officers of the class were President, Tommy Mears; Vice-President, Carolyn Courtney; Secretary, Donna Phillips, and Treasurer, Linda Sweitzer.

We had many class projects! Every other Friday we had bakes and during football season we sold O. H. S. pennants to boost our bank account.

At Christmas time we sold Christmas cards, candy and stationery. The Juniors also held many successful dances on Friday nights.

A few of our former classmates visited us over the Christmas holidays -- Stephen Dye, Harold Glick, and Bobby Brashears of Randolph Macon Academy and Mildred Mapp, who attends St. Catherine's School in Richmond, Virginia.

We welcomed again Carolyn Byrd, one of our former students, into our class of forty-eight students.

Many of the Juniors participated in sporting activities. The cheerleader from our class were Barbie Miles, Jane Twyford, Kendal East, and Ida Lynn Harmon. The other boys and girls also enjoyed the remaining sports of football, basketball, softball and baseball.

The class rings arrived just after Christmas. They were the best Christmas presents ever. A few people were disappointed as their rings were late in arriving, but "better late than never."

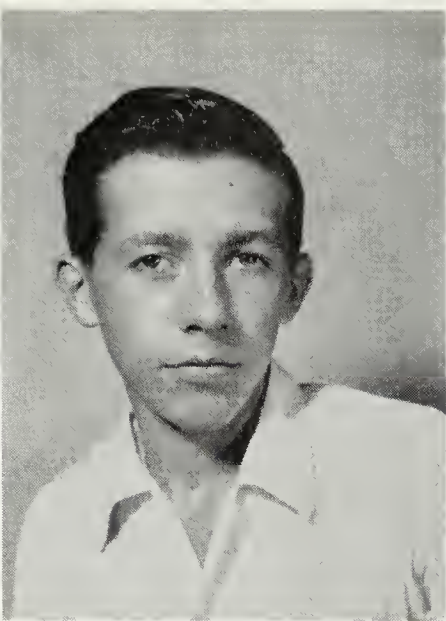

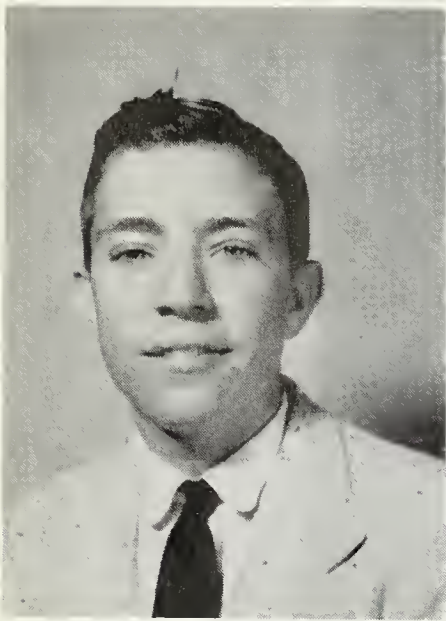

During the year we presented an assembly program based on the dances created during the ages, such as: Egyptian, Indian, Minuet, Charleston, Jitter bug, Mexican Hat Dance, and also a creation of our imagination -- The Dance of the Future.

A committee was selected by the class to choose a play. "Bolts and Nuts" was selected and later presented in March. From all reports it was enjoyed by all.

Everyone was kept well informed of the activities taking place in our school by our Junior newspaper entitled "The Voice of the Campus." The staff of this enterprise worked dilligently to make this activity a huge success.

The year was ended with the greatest event of all, the Junior-Senior Prom. It was held on May 1st, and everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Mark Hilburn.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY 1958-1959

I would like to extend many thanks to my class, the Sophomores of 1958-1959, for having given me the honor and privilege of being their representative for the Junior newspaper, "The Voice of the Campus." It has been fun, as well as interesting, to work with the news staff. This has been an exciting and fun-filled year for each of us.

The first event to acclaim the interest and attention of the girls was, of course, cheerleader tryouts. The three girls chosen to represent the Sophomore class were Mary Frances Mears, Joye Dean Prier, and Kitty Rhodes Grey. Of course the first big event for the boys was participating in football, which they did and greatly succeeded. We are very proud to say that Jerry Kappes, Tommy Miles, Vaughn Davis, Tommy Hopkins, and Jerry Lilliston made the first string of the football team this year and did an excellent job.

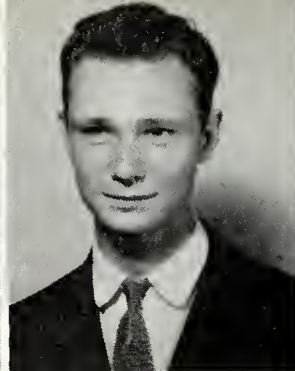

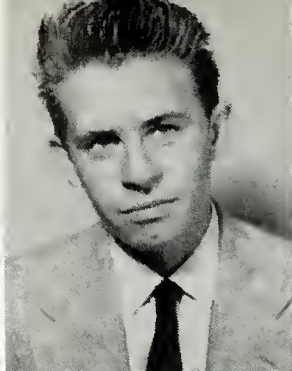

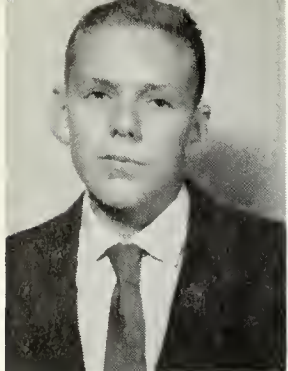

Next came the first class meeting in which our officers were elected for the coming year. Chosen as president was Tommy Miles, who has done a fine job in presiding at our meetings. The vice-president elected was Jerry Kappes, who always "kept the ole ball rollin'!" Billie Lang was elected secretary and has been very efficient in keeping our minutes. Elected as our treasurer for the year was Dale Milliner, who has a very honest face. Last, but not least, was the position of class reporter to which I was elected.

Following football came basketball season, during which the Sophomores were very active. Many of the boys, as well as the girls, made the teams. The Athletic Ball, which was held during basketball season, was attended and enjoyed by many.

We, the Sophomores of 1958-1959, are looking forward to our Junior year, which, we are sure, will prove to be most exciting and thrilling in many aspects. There will be our class rings, the play, and of course, our Prom!

We are deeply grateful to our teachers who have guided us through the past ten years and are looking forward to working with them during our Junior and Senior years.

CLASS HISTORY 1958-1959

As the year comes to a close many memories are brought back to the minds of many Freshmen. Some of these memories we shall never forget.

One of the first events of the Freshmen year was the election of class officers. They were President, Albert Parker; Vice-President, Margaret Elliot; Secretary-Treasurer, Frankie Dorsch and Reporter, Margaret Ann Boggs.

One of our first surprises was that our new Freshman homeroom was to be the new laboratory.

Next was the excitement of getting into athletics. The boys who made the football team were Frankie Dorsch, Mac Smith, Johnny Kellam, Bobby Cherrix, Clarence Courtney, Otha Lewis, Danny Milliner, and Archie Williams. The Freshman boys who made the basketball team were Billy Hickman, and Otha Lewis. The Freshman girls who made the basketball team were Rita Smullin and Suzanne Scott. The girls who made the softball team were Linda Barnes, Rita Smullin, Mary Ann Kilmon, Fay Gibian, Ruthann Johnson, Ellen Johnson, Suzanne Scott, Norma Scott, Margaret Ann Boggs, Bonnie Davenport, and Edna Lilliston.

Another exciting event during the year was the Athletic Ball. Everyone who went had a wonderful time.

The Freshmen representatives for the Spring Fashion Show were Suzanne Scott and Frankie Dorsch.

During the year we gained some new classmates. They were Jan Gouley, Arlene Root, JoAnne Cropper and Barbara Bowman. We also lost a classmate, Edna Lilliston.

A Freshman Dance was scheduled for sometime in the Spring. Our treasury has forty-four dollars and fifty cents so far this year. As yet the class has had little to do to collect money.

Many Freshman girls were members of the F.H.A. In the Fall our chapter traveled to another high school for our F.H.A. Meeting. In the Spring the two counties met at Onancock High School.

As everyone has enjoyed their Freshman year they wouldn't take it back for anything. We are also looking forward to our Sophomore year which will be filled with many more wonderful memories.

Remember the deadline, March first!

Our school days are priceless memories and preserving some of these memories is made possible by the BEACON. How often staff members were reminded by the editors to complete their assignments! As March drew near, we could be seen frantically arranging pictures and finishing last minute typing. At last was completed and sent to the publishers. The staff will never forget the fun, laughs, and hard work of producing this book.

VOICE OF The CAMPUS

EDITOR'S LETTER

At the beginning of the year all the Juniors racked their brains for a novel idea to make money in order to give a spectacular Prom. Then it came -- the idea of a school newspaper. Of course!! This would be a way to spread the news, to make money, and give everyone experience in "big business" and in writing. At first there were many headaches. It seemed that some new problem would come up just as we were ready to go to press, but always we made the deadline. It really gave the class a feeling of success! We've enjoyed publishing "The Voice of the Campus," but it would have been impossible without everyone's help. Although it has been fun, we the Junior Class of 1959, feel that it is only fair to let someone else bring you all the latest events. That is why we have voted to give the paper to the Junior Class of 1960 in hope that it will become the heritage of each Junior Class.

We hope that you will enjoy compiling the news as much as we have.

Good Luck!
